Wealth Building Seminars

An Opportunity One Can Ill Afford to Miss

I have been preparing for this seminar series for twenty years just for a time such as this. By the Grace of God, I have been preparing for this present season. Can you afford to say no to a twenty-one thousand dollar opportunity? One brought to you at no cost to you? Sounds too good to be true?

Think: A Quick Glimpse into Wealth Building

Do you want to learn how to use the Bible to gain wealth? Then keep reading. Hello. I am Dr. AC Brown and I am a changed man. I am also a three-time millionaire coming to you today to share with you, to impart to you the secrets of my success with making money. I will show you how to make the money you need and are trying to make.

During these tough economic times, we all are looking for that next best opportunity to make money, to wrap up that next deal, to help our families, and to get ahead financially. Simply put: We are all trying to get paid.

Today, I am offering you an opportunity to do just that—to get paid—to get wealth, doing it God's way.

You may have asked the Lord how to do what is best during these difficult times. Today I am going to help answer the questions which will help you accomplish those goals which are before you today. I will help you increase your church membership—not only increase your church membership but increase the quality of your new and current members.

This is an opportunity for sixty (60) of your top people to attend a series of three WEALTH BUILDING SEMINARS.

Over my 48 year track record,

I went into several fields. I did not know anything about those fields, but I made millions in each field. Why was I able to make millions in each field? Because I trusted God all the way.
